FOREWORD

The thoughtful person asks, "What is our school?" And the long and varied story begins. No one event or object can effectively characterize our six years at Carthage Central School. We have seen our story in the halls, at the games, in our classes. It is a serious story. It is a story of dynamic, moving, changing young people, each with his or her own view of the school. We, the editors of the Carthadian, have tried to capture these viewpoints with our pictures and comments. By looking at our school through the eyes of the seniors, the underclassmen, teachers, administrators, and others, we see a focal point emerging. We like to call this point in time and space the Carthage Story.

FOOTBALL

Enthusiastic fans saw the Carthage Comets carry the pigskin to a 4-2-1 season. Head Coach Barry Mynter and Line Coach Fred Lampman were greatly pleased as the Scarlet and Silver shut out Oneida for a big win. A stronger offense than last year continued to successfully use the unbalanced-winged T formation. Outstanding quarterback Dave O'Donnell aided by senior halfbacks Jeff Carter, Bob Haver, and Lynn Selos, kept the ball moving. The constant Carthage scoring threat can equally be credited to the strong line composed of seniors: John Beaty, Bill Nettles, George Storms, Bob Mushtare. Carthage was victorious in the final game with Lowville, ending the Raiders' four year control over the Comets.
